

GW4 Climate and AMR workshop

Thursday 8 June 2023

Engineers' House, The Promenade, Clifton, Bristol, BS8 3NB

11:00	Refreshments & networking
11:30	Welcome and purpose of the day Dr Joanna Jenkinson MBE, Director, GW4 Alliance Dr Chris Russell, Workshop facilitator
11:40	Setting the scene – Climate and AMR Prof Lea Berrang Ford Deputy Director, and Head, Centre for Climate and Health Security, UK Health and Security Agency (via Zoom)
12:00	GW4 institutional initiatives in Climate & Health/Planetary Health research Brief overviews from universities of Bath, Bristol, Cardiff and Exeter: Prof Eleonora Fichera, Dept. Economics & Centre for Development Studies, Bath Dr Eunice Lo, Climate Change and Health Research Group, Bristol Prof Will Gaze, European Centre for Environment and Human Health, Exeter Dr Joanne Lello, Planetary Health Network, Cardiff
12:30	Breakout session 1: Connections in context Mapping research interests and strengths by exploring example scenarios. The conversations around context will study intersections between climate and AMR.
13:00	Lunch & networking
14:00	Breakout session 2: Framing research collaborations Responding to problems, prompts and provocations with the creation of new research collaborations.
15:15	Refreshment break
15:30	Breakout session 3: Creating communities Forging future communities in response to converging global challenges. How will these communities be funded? What will hold us together? What possibilities and challenges will we face?
16:20	Wrap-up and next steps Dr Joanna Jenkinson MBE, Director, GW4 Alliance
16:30	Close